This version of the policy of personal data may be modified by us if necessary and you will be informed

Your treatment manager

Cousin Composites is the controller of your personal data and you will find hereunder details: 8 Rue de l'Abbé Bonpain 59 117 Wervicq-Sud; it is referred to by its name or "We" herein.

Your personal data and their collection by Cousin Composites

Your personal data can be collected during:

- Your visit on our website,
- Your exchanges,
- Your prospecting actions, training or execution of our contract.

We do not collect any data not necessary for the purpose of treatment mentioned during the collection or data prohibited by law or regulation.

The collection of certain data may be mandatory or optional and you are informed of the mandatory information. Your personal data may be collected by third party providers or partners, who undertake to comply with European and national regulations on personal data.

Our policy is not to transfer your data outside the European Union; if by exception we proceed to do so, this transfer may only be made to a country or an organization falling under a decision of adequacy (art.45 GDPR) or presenting sufficient appropriate safeguards (art.46 GDPR) .

We do not make any automated decisions.

Our treatments of your personal data

We process your personal data by inserting them into the databases; they are stored, stored and, if necessary, rectified, deleted, archived, anonymized or pseudonymised, transferred to trusted third parties.

We are required to process your personal data for the purposes of the following treatments or for the purposes specified to you during the collection:

- Your information on our commercial (products, services ...) and promotional offers – Communicate with you

We may use your personal data for commercial prospecting purposes, and in particular to send you information about our products / services, our commercial and promotional offers, quotes and other pre-contractual documents, our news by email, mail or telephone.

- Execution of your current contracts and customer follow-up

We use your personal data to ensure the execution of current contracts according to your requests. We may also send you any information about your order or current contracts, their performance, your invoices and contractual documents, advice, the performance of our warranties if applicable and our legal obligations. We still use your personal data to manage our customer relationship, your claims or claims, if any disputes and track your customer history.

- Improving the use of our services and improving our offers

We process your personal data to enable you to make the best use of our services, improve our offers and products / services, and to track your user journey, conduct satisfaction surveys, surveys and anonymous statistics.

- Your payments

Your bank details can be collected either directly by us or by a dedicated and selected provider, which guarantees the complete confidentiality of your bank details and these details are kept only for the time necessary for the duration of the contractual relationship or in the legal limits.

- Protection against fraudulent initiatives

Personal data collected can be used to fight against fraud including payments or withdrawals. As such, our payment security providers can be returned to this data.

- Ensuring respect for the law and court decisions

Your Datas can be used for :

- respond to a request from an administrative or judicial authority, a representative of the law, an auxiliary of justice or comply with a court order;
- ensure compliance with our general sales / service conditions;
- protect our rights and / or obtain compensation for any damage we may suffer or limit its consequences
- to prevent any act contrary to the laws in force, in particular in the framework of the prevention of the risks of fraud

We may still have to process your personal data for the following purposes:

- trade relations

- Sending marketing campaigns by email, post or phone (including via a provider)

Security

- Protection of property and people and video surveillance security

The basis of the processing of your personal data

In accordance with the regulations, the processing of your personal data by us is justified if it is based on one of the following bases:

- Your consent to the processing of your data by us: you agree to the processing of your personal data by express consent. You may withdraw this consent at any time from our DPO; or
- The existence of a contract between you and us: the processing of the data is then justified by the needs of the execution of the contract; or
- Our legitimate interest in the processing of your personal data as long as this proportionate interest respects your fundamental rights and your private life; or
- The law or the regulations in force when it requires us to process and store your personal data.

Terms and lengths of storage of your personal data

We manage your personal data in three phases:

- an active phase where the data are kept for the time indicated below in "active" database: your personal data are then accessible only by the people with an operational need to access it in order to carry out authorized treatments
- an archiving phase (for additional time for "active" storage) when a legitimate reason justifies it: your personal data are then archived with restricted access and for a limited time
- A phase of deletion or anonymisation: at the end of the additional archiving within the deadlines below, your personal data are deleted or anonymized (so that they can no longer constitute personal data identifying you).

Your personal data are kept for the time necessary for the needs of their treatment, our customer relationship where applicable and the execution of contracts and within the limits specifically laid down by law; we may store your personal data in archive for the purposes of keeping accounting, tax or evidentiary supporting evidence for the time of the applicable requirements. As an example, here are the storage times for the following treatments (subject to the regulation requiring a differentiated shelf life):

Purpose of the treatment	Basis of treatment	Retention of personal data in the "active" database	Additional archiving
prospection	Your consent	3 years if you have not responded actively to any solicitation. The deadline runs again in case of active solicitation on your part	X
Execution of our contractual obligations to you / services	Contract	The time required for the execution of the contract and 3 years from the end of the business relationship (last activity (such as completion of contract (purchase, service ...), connection to the site as a registered user )	5 years at the end of the contractual relationship
Trade relations	Contract	3 years from the end of the business relationship (last activity on your part with us)	5 years at the end of the contractual relationship

Withdrawing your consent to the collection or processing of your personal data

Your consent to the collection of your personal data may be withdrawn by writing to our DPO by email or by mail to the addresses on the header, mentioning your surname, first name, e-mail and address with the exact nature and purpose of your your withdrawal request.

You can also send us any comments about your personal data to :
